JACK WILFRED LEE

HARROWSMITH — traffic accident victim Jack Wilfred Lee, 45, of Glenvale, who died Oct. 31 from injuries received in a car-pedestrian accident, was buried in the cemetery here.

He was the youngest son of the late Sydney Lee and his wife, the former Hetta Clark. Since the death of his parents 31 years ago, he resided with an uncle, Andrew Clark of Glenvale.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Loretta Walker of Toronto, and Mrs. Arthur Emmons of Enterprise. He was predeceased by a brother, Kenneth.

Mr. Lee was employed as a carpenter for the past 11 years by Glen Construction Ltd. of Kingston.

Pallbearers were Clare and James Ellerbeck, Robert Gilpin and three nephews, Douglas Emmons and Keith and Kenneth Walker. Nov 1969
